

BRITISH COLUMBIA
FireSmart™

Promotional and Event Catalogue

We are pleased to offer you some great pre-approved promotional item options and event resources.

Did you know that FireSmart™ is a registered trademark and you can easily apply to use the branding to create your own items that can be added to this catalogue by ordering through our trusted supplier, Queen's Printer? Please review the Brand Use Guidelines page to easily review and apply for usage today!

The items listed in the catalogue have already been authorized for use by British Columbia FireSmart™ in accordance with FireSmart Trademark regulations, to save you time.

Whether you are seeking small promotional items, or are seeking to support a large project, we invite you to review our resources to ensure quality and consistency of the FireSmart messaging.

Pricing is dependent on what you are ordering and the quantities you require. Bulk ordering is the most economical option and these quality products can remain in your inventory for years to come. You may also choose to buddy up with others for a bulk order and have the items shipped to different locations.

Ordering and payment is easy and items will ship directly to the location of your choice.
